

Join our Small Group after the service

After the service today, we will offer a discussion on the sermon we have just heard. What did we learn today? How can we pray for one another?

We welcome all members to stay back for a short time to discuss and pray together.

Our next services and events

Over the next few weeks, we plan on meeting every Sunday at 3pm. Some Sundays we will meet for a Service and small group afterwards, like today. On other Sundays, we will have no service, but only small group Bible study and discussions.

We hope you can join us every Sunday, 3pm.

Special event on October 29th

To celebrate 500 years since the Reformation, we will have a special event on Sunday, October 29th. We'll have our regular service, but we'll also have a meal together. Details tbc. Please keep that Sunday free and start inviting your friends as well! It'll be a great opportunity to reach out to those who are not (yet) connected to the church.

October 08th: Small Group

Come Home, the Father is Waiting

One of our goals here at Aletheia is that we live out our Faith not just on Sundays, but throughout the rest of the week as well. Therefore, we would like to encourage everyone to reflect on today’s sermon over the next few days. Below are some questions that could help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time.

Please read Luke 15:11-24 again and/or listen to the sermon again to allow God to speak to you. Then you can pray to Him over the questions below.

But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and sandals on his feet: And bring here the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. (Luke 15:22-24)

- Do I wholeheartedly believe that God loves me the way He loves the younger son in this parable? Or do I doubt whether this is really true for me personally as well?
- Have I ever personally experienced the restoration of God? Or is it mainly head knowledge about God?
- Is there an area in my life where I live in „the far country“?
- Is there currently a famine in my life that might be from God, because He wants to get my attention?
- Do I see myself predominantly as a servant of God? Or as a beloved Son/Daughter?
- What does God want me to do to experience the Celebration in heaven over me?
