Library

AIC is now offering a small library. You can borrow books any Sunday, if you are interested in any of the books. Also, if you don't have a Bible, please take one home for free.

Prepare/Enrich available !

Pastor Bernd and His wife Ryoko are now licensed to run Prepare/Enrich. It's a great tool to look at the current state of your marriage and learn some new tools to make some changes and improvements. We are offering this program for any married couple or two people who are seriously thinking about marriage.

This program is also a great way to reach out to your community, since participants do not have to be Christians.

Jesus, the Prince of Peace

We would like to encourage everyone to reflect on today's sermon over the next few days. Below are some questions that could help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time.

Also, please feel free to listen to the sermon again through our app and/or our website.

John 14:27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world gives, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

- Which of the Names of Jesus in Isaiah's prophesy speaks the most to me? Why? (Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace)
- What is my definition of peace? Is it in line with the way the Bible defines peace?
- In general, would I say that I experience peace in my life? Or would I describe my life more in terms of fears, anxieties, etc?
- In what area of my life do I generally not experience peace? Is there a connection between my lack of peace and a lack of Faith/Trust in Jesus in this area?
- How do I currently deal with my anxieties? Do I bring them to God in the way that Phil. 4:6-7 describes? How can I deal with my anxieties in a way that pleases God more?
- What is my plan for this Christmas season? Do I plan to put effort into entering God's rest? Or do I try to find rest by „doing nothing“? Do I want to adjust my plans/schedule in some way, to truly find peace and rest in Jesus?
