Parenting: Our childhood

Below are some questions that could help us all reflect on today's sermon and to go deeper with God during our quiet time this week.

Deuteronomy 5:9-10 ... for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

- How would I describe my feelings towards my childhood in one sentence?
- If I was asked to describe the one thing I liked the most in my childhood: What would I choose?
- If I was asked to describe the one thing I disliked the most in my childhood: What would I choose?
- Do I show patterns of NOT wanting to deal with my negative childhood experiences? (e.g. avoidance, anger, unforgiveness, etc)
- What do I still need to forgive my parents for? Are there other people in my past that I haven't forgiven yet?
- What negative patterns do I see in my life? Can I see a connection between these patterns and my childhood?
- Do I have one or two people that I can talk to about my childhood experiences and how they affect me today?
- If I would like to receive healing for one childhood experience: Which one would I choose? Which practical steps do I want to take to receive God's healing in this area?
