Psalm 1 (verse by verse)

Below are some questions that could help us all reflect on today's sermon and to go deeper with God during our quiet time this week.

Psalms 1:1-6 Blessed is the man that walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law does he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that brings forth its fruit in its season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he does shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind drives away. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the LORD knows the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

- Verse 1: Where do I walk with the world more than walking with God?
- Verse 2: In what areas of my life do I want to include God more?
- Verse 3: What is my definition of a „Blessed Life“? Is it in line with how this verse defines a blessed life?
- Verse 3: In what areas of my life do I feel like the strong and fruitful tree? In what areas do I not feel like that? Does it have something to do with how much I walk with God in these areas of my life?
- Verse 4: In what areas of my life do I feel like the chaff?
- What changes in my priorities do I want to make in response to today's sermon?
