Money (Part 5): Budgeting

Philippians 4:11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, to be content.

Below are some questions that could help us all reflect on today's sermon and to go deeper with God during our quiet time this week.

- What is my current plan budgeting my finances? Do I have a plan? Is it working well?
- Does my income drive my living standard? Or do I fall into the world's temptation, trying to turn this principle around?
- Do I have an annual and/or long-term plan for savings, bigger activities, investments, etc?
- Do I have a realistic view on how much money I can spend each month?
- Can I clearly say how much money I need for absolute necessities each month? How much money is left after I paid for all my necessities?
- Am I monitoring my income and spending throughout the month?
- What does my budget (or the lack of it) tell me about my heart?
- What practical next step do I want to take in response to today's message?
