The Heart of Evangelism

2 Peter 3:9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

Below are some questions that could help us all reflect on today's sermon and to go deeper with God during our quiet time this week.

- What is my attitude towards evangelism right now? Something easy? Natural? Or something that is really difficult for me?
- Do I generally feel God's love for people? Do I have compassion on them? Or am I quick to judge them?
- What does my (lack of) willingness to evangelize tell me about my Faith and the state of my heart?
- What is my personal mission field? What person or people group has God put on my heart to reach out to?
- From what situation in my past has God brought me out? How can I share that experience with people who are still in that situation?
- What practical step does God want me to take in response to today's sermon?
