Paul the Evangelist

1 Thessalonians 2:4-6 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts. For neither at any time used we flattering words, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God is witness: Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

Below are some questions that could help us all reflect on today's sermon and to go deeper with God during our quiet time this week.

- Who does God want me to invite this week to the Aletheia anniversary? What approach does He want me to take?
- How does my lifestyle show people around me that I am „not like everybody else“?
- How does God want me to reflect His love to those He wants to reach through me?
- Are there any wrong ambitions in my heart when I try to reach people for Christ?
- What practical steps does God want me to take this coming week to bring people to the church anniversary?
