- If I knew that Jesus was coming back today: Would I live differently?
- The sermon mentioned several people who responded to Jesus' arrival in different ways (Zacharias, Elizabeth, Mary, Joseph, Shepherds, Simeon, Anna, Wise Men, King Herod): Which of these characters and their response to Jesus describes my current lifestyle the best?
- Do I truly anticipate Jesus' second coming as the „Great and dreadful day“ that the Bible describes it to be? Or do I treat it more lightly (more like an old friend visiting again)? What does that say about my Faith?
- What area of my heart and life is more like Herod's reaction to Jesus' arrival? What practical steps does Jesus want me to take with this part of my life over this Christmas season to surrender it back to Him?
