Schedule and Corona Virus

We thank God that some of the restrictions that had been imposed on us have been lifted and we can have our Sunday Services in person again. However, we will not simply be able to go back to normal immediately, since some restrictions still apply. Therefore, we'll continue with the following regular schedule for the time being:

- The services will be shorter and the service order will also look different.
- We have created a code of conduct we would like everyone to follow. It is available in our worship room. Please follow all these guidelines, so we can protect each other. Also, if the police were to check on „what we are doing“, we'd be in serious trouble if we didn't keep all the regulations handed down to us.
- Our Bible Study time on Thursdays as well as our fellowship time on Saturdays (Ladies) and Sundays (Guys) are still happening online for the moment. We expect to meet in person at Aidenbachstr. again for these gatherings soon, but for the moment, we still meet online.
- If you have any ideas or suggestions on what you would like us to do during this time, please let us know, so we can discuss our ideas together.

Tell us your story

We're opening up our Sunday Services for personal stories (Testimonies, Prayer Requests, Stories about our lives,...) Please let Bernd know if there is anything you would like to share with the rest of us.

Praying for ourselves

Luke 11:13 If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

Below are some questions that can help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time this week

- After reading the passage in Hebrews 4:14-16: How much do I rely on „performance“ in my prayers? And how much do I simply rely on „who Jesus is and what He has done“?
- Have I ever considered the difference between asking, seeking and knocking? Are there prayer points in my life where God wants me to change my approach?
- Do I fully believe in and embrace God's goodness? Why or why not? How does this affect the way I pray?
- What role does „asking for the Holy Spirit“ play in my prayer life?
- After hearing today's message: Are there any adjustments God wants me to make in my prayer life?
